

The point where McKinley Run enters the Beaver River which is also the northern end of the Rochester Riverfront Park. The bridge that would be necessary for this connection is represented diagrammatically.